Capital Campaign Update: Recently, we completed the bid phase for acquiring a general contractor for our Capital Campaign. Three companies submitted bids for our project, and Graycon Building Group out of Wichita has been selected. In the near future (a few weeks), actual/tangible work should begin on the Church's roof and towers. We will keep you informed of any changes to parking or school drop-off locations that may need to occur as a result of this work. Thank you all for your continued prayers and support of this much needed work for our church and parish!
