Our 10th Annual St. Patrick Banquet/Auction is Saturday, October 26th!!!

Yes, this may seem early...but it's our 10th Banquet/Auction...and that's a BIG DEAL! In fact, planning for this great evening is already underway. To help with the many decisions and preparations for such an event, a standing Auction Committee has been created, with Jill Kepley as the Committee coordinator, along with 11 sub-committees. Please pray for them, as they dedicate their time and energy throughout the course of the year, in preparing for this special evening! More details to follow!

Got an Hour to Spend with Jesus? Adorers Still Needed for Adoration!

While many have already signed up for an hour of Adoration with our Lord, we still have many open hours to fill. We have had a pretty good response for filling time slots during the day, but we are truly needing courageous people to make the sacrifice to sign up for the time slots during the night/early morning. Adoration, correctly done, is a continuous time around the clock. So, the bottom line is this: if we cannot fill the time slots for at least one night/early morning, then we will only be able to have Adoration in the Chapel during the day...for one day. We need at least one person/hour, but two people is preferable. We can do this as a parish family if we are willing to make a commitment for the Lord. Now, more than ever, we need to be drawing close to Jesus in prayer for ourselves, our families, our marriages, the Church, our country, and indeed the world. Lastly, the education class on Adoration has been rescheduled for Tuesday evening, February 5, at 7:00 PM in the Parish Center. We hope to begin Adoration in Bethlehem Chapel the week of February 11-15.
