Stewardship Reflections - In his letter to the Hebrews, Paul compares discipleship to a great race, one that requires determination and perseverance. Jesus sets the perfect example, and we must follow Him — in fact, we should chase after Him! He says to “rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us,” for those are the things that slow our pursuit. We have been blessed with the strength to endure the race. We have also been given a role model who kept his eyes on the finish line, even though it included the cross. He endured opposition and shame and now wears a crown of glory. May we all spend every moment of our lives striving to compete with the same wild intensity.
